250th Year £250 cheques

At the regular January meeting of St. John's Lodge No. 70 in Plymouth, the Brethren were delighted to welcome W. Bro. Maurice W. Eglinton, the Assistant Provincial Grand Master, to the evening.

It is tradition in St. Johns Lodge that formal aspects of the January meeting is kept as short as possible and immediately after the Lodge has closed the Brethren join their families and friends for a social gathering at the festive board.

This year the Brethren had also invited representatives from 9 local charities, which had been nominated by members of the Lodge, to receive cheques for £250 each as part of its 250th Anniversary celebrations.

Despite the atrocious weather conditions outside W. Bro. Eglinton, with the Worshipful Master, W. Bro. Ian Scrivener warmly welcomed family and friends into the Temple.

W. Bro. Eglinton then presented the cheques and the Charity representatives gave a brief outline of the use they would be making of the money.

The Anniversary Year will end, as it began, with a birthday lunch at the Staddon Heights Golf Club for Lodge members, their families and guests on 21st March 2010.
