

50 Years in the Holy Royal Arch for EComp John Bruce – PPrGReg - PDAstGSoj Eastern Archipelago

EComp John Bruce, born in Aberdeen in 1931, joined Unilever Exports as a Post Boy and with only a break for his National Service in the Royal Air Force, retired in 1987 as National Chairman of the company when he then purchased a small holding near Axminster. EComp Bruce, was Exalted into Royal Arch Masonry in 1959 when he joined Rokell Chapter No. 2798, Freetown. He was later a founder of London West Africa Chapter No. 8485 in 1963 and joined Chapter Singapore in 1969. Married to his wife Rosemary since 1955, John even found time to raise a family - two boys and a daughter Fiona - known to us all as a BBC news reader and presenter of Antiques Road-show.
